Primary Colors Guild's Spring Art Show and Sale

Carnegie, Pa May 3-4 - The spring art show and sale features oil paintings by members of the Primary Colors Art Guild. The show will open with a reception from 5 PM- 9 PM on Friday May 3 with light refreshments. It will continue through Saturday May 4th from 10 AM to 1 PM. Both events are free and open to the public at the Life Span Chartiers Senior Center located in Carnegie, Pa. at 300 Lincoln Avenue (corner of Lincoln Ave. and Cherry Way).

The Primary Colors Art Guild is a diverse group of local area painters sponsored by the Life Span Chartiers Senior Center. The Guild's mission is to provide growth, enrichment and art education through weekly classes, demonstrations and workshops. Guild members meet Wednesday and/or Thursday mornings at the Carnegie Life Span Center throughout the year to hone and practice their painting skills – new members are always welcome.

In addition to a full-time art instructor who is a practicing artist herself, local professional artists are frequent guest lecturers and instructors at the Guild's weekly sessions. These practicing artists share their expertise with the Guild's members on a diverse range of topics such as drawing, still life techniques, using the palette knife and landscape, portraiture and much more.

The works of the Guild and its members are frequently on display at local art shows including recent shows at the Galleria Mall in Mount Lebanon and the South Hills Jewish Community Center.
